Summary:

In the late hours inside an underground facility, a security guard visits a young girl. A test subject he knows only as 011.

The 11th Hour

Hawkins National Laboratory or as most people in the small Indiana town knew it, Hawkins Power and Light sat perfectly tucked away. Isolated from just about everyone. A complete secret except for the few who work there. The few who've been there. The ones who were allowed a peek behind the curtain and lived. And even then even fewer knew what really transpired below ground level.

One such few were the security guards. The night shift guards in particular as was the case for Noah. Who spent his nights patrolling the long corridors of white tiles. Over the course of his four months working there he'd seen quite a lot. All of which was never to be spoken of, included amongst one another.

The extreme precautions didn't bother Noah all that much. He wasn't much of a people person and the job paid more than enough for him to overlook it. After he clocks in he goes about his rounds keeping an eye on things long after the day had died down.

There wasn't much to be done aside from the usual routine. But one aspect that piqued his interest was the 'babysitting' part of his job. He was well aware that there as stuff he didn't know, wasn't supposed to know, and didn't want to know. And that had to do with the numerous kids and teens he watched over.

And all three were true when it came to half of the stuff they were up to when they were with the scientists or Dr. Brenner. He wasn't paid to. He was just there to make sure no one got in or out. But on the rare chance he did get to see what some of the kids were able to do.

The most notable one was a young girl. She didn't have a name but she had a number. 011. When he first saw her he thought she was a boy because of her shaved head but that thought didn't last long. There was something about her. She seemed to be Brenner's favorite considering how much time he spent with her. At first he thought maybe they were related, his granddaughter, or even his actual daughter. he heard the girl refer to him as Papa a few times.

There were others, but none like this one. He'd seen enough bodies to know she was dangerous when she was pissed. Thankfully he was never any of them. Over time he started to get attached to her. A lot of the others had come and gone but this one was here for longer than most. And soon Noah found himself watching her more than most.

Noah couldn't explain why but there was something about her that made him feel different. Sometimes at home after leaving he'd find himself thinking about her in bed. It'd started to become clear he liked her in a way that he shouldn't. And yet every night he went in and admired her from afar in the brief glimpses he got or the longer periods he spent in her presence. She was quiet only ever speaking to her Papa. But her voice was soft and she was so cute. And it wasn't long before he started thinking about her in other ways too.

During one of his rounds Noah stops by the girl's door. The clock in the hallway ticked by. A sit passed by 11 o'clock he's ready to head inside. The blank door baring the number eleven and nothing else. He'd watched her as much as she could all day. She'd been through some testing with Brenner again.

Noah slides his key into the lock and turns it. Peering inside he sees her asleep in bed. Silently making his way over to her Noah treads slowly. He comes to a stop beside the bed and Eleven. She even looked cute while she slept. Cuddling up against a stuffed animal. Above her head were a few hand drawn pictures that she made.

Taking his time the night guard leans in hovering over the child as he gently places a hand on her hip. She's out like a light. Sleeping on her side Noah nudges her over until she's on her back. The girl lets out a soft moan and shifts her weight a little more but soon goes still once again.

Noah pulls the sheet down from over her body and stares down at the girl dressed in only her white gown. He stops it down past her bare feet and brings his eyes up her slender legs. Despite never being outside he was shocked by the slight tan shade of her skin. Unable to help himself he lays his hand down on her legs and lets it glide upwards towards her thighs.

Eleven's skin was softer than he thought it would be. Almost like silk against his fingertips. He quickly comes to the bottom of the long gown. For a while now he wanted to see under this thing and tonight was the night he was going to.

Easing the gown up her legs Noah anticipates what her body looks like. Below his dick was throbbing in his long johns imagining. The white garment passes over her thighs and for a second he pauses. The number one question that had circulated in his perverted mind was if the girl was wearing anything underneath.

This was answered by a little more tugging. Her legs lays sprawled open just a little and he saw her bald childish slit in all of its glory. No underwear to be seen. His dick was tearing at his pants to get free by now and he wanted so badly to let it loose.

But the time would come for that. Right now all he wanted to do was admire the beauty of her young pussy. It was something he'd been dying to see for so long and now he was standing over her slumbering body. he grab a hold of her left legs and parts it further giving himself a better look at her prepubescent lips. Her slit opens up and he can see clearly into her vaginal opening. But that doesn't stop him from pushing on her right leg to spread her wider.

With both legs held open he was seconds from shoving his face between her legs just to see what she tasted like. The thought of letting his tongue slip between her cunny made his jaw ache almost as hard as his loins.

Noah brings his hand to her sex. His fingers pressing her folds together and apart while he watches the subtle movements in her body to the new sensation. Her clit is small and gets a bigger reaction, a genuine moan of pleasure. Her head lifts then slides to the side.

Before he continues Noah brings his hand to his face. The scent of Eleven's crotch lingers on his digits. The pungent aroma intoxicating him as he sticks a finger in his mouth. Coating his middle digit in saliva he reintroduces it to the girl's pussy. The slippery finger finding her hole and nudging its way inside slowly.

Eleven purrs in her sleep from the small insertion of the tip of his finger. With the fresh breach of her cunt Noah takes things slowly, wiggling it around inside to stretch her open. Poking around her entrance gets the pre-teen surprisingly wet in a short amount of time.

Seeing her shift around occasionally while his finger takes her on an exploration of new feelings is too much for him to not be bursting at the seams. He can feel his boxers being filled with pre-cum while he has his fun.

A few minutes later he starts sliding his finger in deeper. The girl stiffens in her sleep as more of her love tunnel is opened but it's never enough to wake her. Her mouth opens and a long sexy moan falls out but then she goes quiet leaving her mouth open which is one of the sexiest things he's seen her do so far. As if she was offering her mouth up to him for making her feel so good. It was something he was considering.

Noah had gotten up to the second knuckle on his middle digit and the girl was clamping down on it tight. It felt as if it were sucking him in deeper. As though his finger might break off inside of her. He didn't expect anything less from a virgin pre-teen and yet he was still left surprised by just how tight the little girl could be on his finger. Then he thought to how tight she would feel wrapped around his cock and he almost came in his pants.

Noah slides his finger deeper, as far in as he can go and Eleven takes it. The unconscious pleasure getting to be too much after so long that Noah is able to determine she was getting close to an orgasm. Her body shivering each time he was all the way in and as he dragged his finger across the roof of her pussy and teasing her G-spot on the pull out.

In a short time she turned on her back again and went into a harsh spasm. When she had Noah stopped moving his finger and watched the 12 year old experience her first orgasm on his digit. It takes almost a full minute for her to stop. A hectic pattern of shallow breaths followed as Eleven came down from the ecstasy of her climax. When it was all over Noah slides his finger out.

The digit is coated in the girl's slick. Her hot juices dripping from her slightly gaping virgin cunt. With the clear nectar dripping from his finger Noah shoved it into his mouth and marveled at how sweet the girl tasted on his tongue. All of his anticipation melted his being once he had Eleven's juices on his tongue.

But it also became noticeable that he couldn't hold out any further. His dick was screaming to be released and he had to oblige. Noah goes for his belt buckle first and with it undone he pulls the zipper down and fishes his throbbing dick out of his boxers.

Most of his tip was glazed over by the sticky pre-cum he felt collecting in mass. The rest of his six inch shaft was pulsating hard and twitching now that it was free. The simple release was enough to alleviate some of the tension built up in his meat but he needed to relieve all of it.

Taking his dick in hand Noah begins pumping his length as he watched Eleven fade deeper into her sleep with a calming murmur. Her fingers that were digging into the stuffed animal had loosened to a much lighter grip letting the plush fall from her hand and to the floor.

Noah takes a step closer to the sleeping tween. Pressing the tip against Eleven's cheek her growls under his breath. Her cheeks were just as soft as the rest of her. Slowly her thrusts his hips letting the length of his dick slide up her smooth features. The length of his shaft passes over her face. Her faint exhales from her nose hitting his erection with gentle puffs of air.

While the man looked down at his dick laying across the girl's face he captures more of her cuteness. With her head shaved so low anyone who didn't know her could easily mistake her for a boy at a distance and maybe a little closer. But not this close. Despite the hair there was something so genuinely feminine about Eleven. It drove him mad with lustful thoughts. She was a perfect little angel.

As more pre-cum leaks from the top of his dick Noah nudges the girl's mouth open with his left hand and begins to guide his missile into her open slot. Feeling her tongue sliding along his length sends electricity up his back. His legs tremble uncontrollably.

When it starts to subside he caresses the child's jaw to close her mouth on his dick making the first thrust into her mouth a tight fit. He doesn't squeeze too tight to cause any discomfort and potentially wake her up. But enough that all of her mouth is wrapped around his thick length.

Fucking Eleven's mouth takes all the strength the guard has to now bellow out with horny howls. Her tight mouth felt so good. It couldn't get any better. Even though she was asleep and the wasn't much in terms of sucking, just her wet interior was enough to get Noah close to blowing a load down the little girl's throat.

He continues for as long as he can manage. Thrusting into the girl's mouth and stopping shy of hitting the back of her throat. He could only imagine how amazing it would be to have his dick stretching out her throat but blocking her windpipe was off limits if he wanted this to continue.

Marveling in the truly divine sensation of having sex with Eleven's mouth, Noah finally gave in to the monstrous level of ecstasy. He pumps his length in deep a few more times and shudders. Thick and hot globs of his cum shooting into her mouth. It was too late to pull out. Noah pushes his length in further coming to the back of her mouth as he lets and hopes his cum will be unconsciously swallowed.

Hearing his heat pounding in his ear while his dick pulsates in her mouth he waits. And when he sees Eleven's throat bulge as she swallows he exhales and waits for the last drop to be drunk. With his sperm no longer filling her esophagus Noah pulls out. Eleven had swallowed most of it, the batch that he had released almost directly down her throat. But the rest from the first few ejaculations were still in her mouth and dripped out of her open mouth.

Noah leans in to wipe it as the white goo drips from the corner of her mouth but Elven turns in her sleep again so that she's no longer being held. And it proves to be a blessing in disguise as inadvertently wipes it away with a limp brush of her hand and swallows the rest.

After cumming Noah was ready to go. He didn't want to push his luck. But he felt too good after just releasing a weeks worth of jizz into the pre-teen's mouth. And seeing her swallow it all kept his dick too hard to just leave. And he also still wanted to taste her young pussy.

Moving back to the bottom of her bed he takes his position. He spreads Eleven's again and smiles seeing that the girl's pussy was wet. A shimmering gloss of her juices catching his eye in the dull florescent light of her bare room. Noah didn't expect her to be enjoying it to get wet.

Now he wanted to fuck her so badly. He needed too but he'd spent so much time working her up, if he tried sliding his dick into such a tight hole there was no telling if he'd even fit or if she'd wake up as he pushed into her. If he would he would have to make sure she was loose enough to take him.

Noah goes back to her pussy but this time not with his hand. He leans in on the bed with Eleven and brings his face to her sex. With great delight the guard licks up her tiny slit. She tastes even better than the small sample he had on his finger. Eleven lets out another adorable moan against his tongue and many more with the repeated licks.

Noah occasionally glances up to see the girl fidget in her sleep. She balls her fists up and her bottom lip quivers. She's enjoying this as much as he is even while she's asleep. His tongue dances up and down her pussy. Lapping up her sweet juices as they leak from her aroused core.

When he starts licking up more Noah slides his tongue up to her clit playing for a little and getting the biggest reaction from her. While nibbling on her clit Eleven shivers and purrs out as she had when he slide his finger into her cunny. And now he repeated the action with his tongue. Sliding it depp into her pussy while continuing to rub her little clit with his fingers.

This brings Eleven over the edge and the girl starts to cum again. Noah doesn't slow down however keeping his fast pace on her sex and slurps at her sex drinking down all of her expelling juices. he knew he couldn't stay for long. If the cameras didn't catch him going about his hourly routes he might be caught. But he wanted to stay in her pussy for as long as possible. He didn't want to leave Eleven.

Below he beats his meat while bringing Eleven to a second orgasm shorty after the first. As his tongue flapped around in her juicy cunt he imagined thrusting into her hole. Going balls deep as they slapped against her clit. Emptying so much more cum into the girl's belly than he had in her mouth. How hard she made him he figured he might be able to cum a good three times in her pussy. Maybe even for. Plenty enough to satisfy his cravings for her underage pussy.

In a few seconds Eleven is cumming again thanks to Noah's tongue. Right after he pulls himself up and moves to Eleven's face just as he starts to cum. Another thick load of cum shoots out and covers her beautiful face. He hadn't expected to do this but Eleven did look so cute with her face drenched in fresh semen. He continues jerking off as she paints a nice portrait with white streaks lining her face with sperm.

Once he's finished Noah gets a good mental look at Eleven. The girl is fast asleep still breathing heavy after back to back orgasms. And now she was plastered with a decent sized facial. Her first but he hoped not the last. If he wanted to push it now was the time but he was getting hot and a little tired. And on the other hand he could alway come back for some more fun.

His dick slowly shrinking he tucks it away and goes about wiping Eleven's face off with a small cloth. The mess clean up has Noah wishing he had the time and awareness to put his dick back into her mouth. But then again he wouldn't have the visual of her coated in his seed which was enough to make up for the extra minute it took to make sure her face was as spotless as it was when he arrived.

Noah fixes his uniform. After he fixes Eleven's gown and pulls her sheet back over her. Then he starts to leave when he steps on something. Looking down he sees it's her stuffed animal. Noah picks it up brushing it off and sliding it between her arms before leaving her room without much of a trace that he was there other than his new vivid memories.

Over the next few weeks Noah pays Eleven a couple sporadic visits at the same time. When the clock struck 11 he would enter her room and be gone before it turned midnight. he tried to avoid going to see her two times in a row but sometimes he couldn't resist her lure and would do so.

Every time he would get his dick sucked. Loving every second his member slid in and out of her mouth until he either came in her mouth or all over her face. It was heaven each and every time he got to cum with her mouth. And while he loved cumming with her he often found himself wanting to make her cum. Every part of her orgasms made his nightly visits. The slightest details from her rhythmic breathing, and each subtle movement as she rolls her hips and shifts her weight down to every fleeting moan and whimper.

It was also inside. The third time he came to Eleven's room, as he eat her pussy like the previous times he decided to start stretching her out with his index. The closer the girl got to a climax the more she squeezed down on his digit. The first time he made her cum with his fingers was fun but the more he did it the better it seemed to get. By the second week he'd up her fingering to two fingers which made her cum twice as fast and twice as hard. The trend continued when he began playing with her G-spot and kissed her while she moaned into his mouth.

Another week would come and go. Noah had managed to visit Eleven over two dozen times in almost a month. And it seemed Eleven would be expecting him. He'd often find her sleeping on her back with her legs open as if she were laying in wait for the pleasure that came to her in the night. She was turning into a horny little slut and by the end of the week Noah intended to finally go all the way.

When Noah arrives at the lab he does his job. But when the clock reaches Eleven he only has one thing on his mind, paying another visit to the little sleeping beauty. By now he'd done it so much it'd become a normal routine for him. It was a part of working that he actually looked forward to.

As midnight a little over an hour away Noah gets moving. The night guard sneaks into the girl's room for the umpteenth time. He couldn't remember how many times he stopped in here and spent some time with her. Each subsequent time seemingly blended into the next. And while each time was special in it's own way. After so long it'd all melded into one fantastic dream that he seemed to be living in. Throughout the day he went about his mundane life. But when night came around and most people in Hawkins would be asleep he was in his own dreamland.

This time he found Eleven asleep on her left side with her back to the door. As Noah pulls her sheet down he sees her gown is already up to her mid thigh. he rolls her onto her back and he can see she's soaking wet. A closer look an he could see her hand was too and he imagined she was masturbating although he doubted she even knew what that word meant. But if she remembered the pleasure she felt while she slept she might be driven to touching herself to feel it again.

Thinking of the little minx sliding her fingers between her sex and reaching deep inside got Noah hard instantly. Of all the things he'd seen, seeing her playing with herself was now one of the things he wanted to see most.

Whether she managed to give herself an orgasm or not he wasn't sure. But based off how wet her snatch was it seemed she might have been at it for a while. if it happened to be the latter, noah intended to make it up to her.

He lifts the child's gown again up to her stomach as he gets on the bed. Recently he started lifting the gown up just enough to get a glimpse at her chest. She didn't have much. Her breasts were almost non-existent. Her nipples were puffy and she was just barely starting to bud which meant she was sensitive. While he'd eat her out he'd reach up and play with her erect nipples.

The only problem was he was never able to get Eleven completely naked which is something else he wanted to see. He'd seen about all of her there was but to actually have her naked, sprawled out on the bed. As she starts licking at her pussy and rubbing his length through his pants he thinks if he'd be able to take it off. If he was going to fuck her he wanted to see her young petite body on full display.

Between his licking Noah hears Eleven cooing. Her voice is louder than usual but he doesn't notice it at first. It's not until he spreads her folds open and invites his tongue into her pussy. Eleven starts to shiver and whines out as the pleasure starts to be too much for her to remain quiet. Eleven then clamps her legs against the sides of Noah's head and grabs him by his hair.

Feeling her grip he looks up ready to alternate from his tongue to his fingers. Eleven writhes through a tremendous wave of pleasure. And as she tosses and turns he sees the girl's eyes flick open. For a brief time their eyes lock.

Noah freezes for the moment unsure if she's actually awake. But he knows she is as the girl blinks and stares back at him. She pants out with a look of pure sexual pleasure coursing through her body but Noah to is afraid to make a single move. A shiver goes down his spine and suddenly he feels his legs for a split second. Reacting to the sensation he gets up standing over the girl.

Her eyes follow him the entire time. Slowly the man backs away towards the door not taking his eyes off of her until he reaches it. When Noah's back taps against the cold metal door he turns around and open the door only for the handle to to be snatched from his hand by an unseen force.

He knows what caused it and he turns around. Eleven is sitting up now on the edge of the bed. A trickle of blood dripping from her nose. Following this Noah doesn't dare make another move. The room is silent for the next few seconds as both parties wait to see what the other will do. When the waiting is done Eleven is the first of them to move. The young girl grabs the bottom of her gown and lifts it up to the middle of her flat stomach showing off her wet sex. Noah hesitates before moving but when she spreads her legs giving him a better view he pieces together why he's still standing.

With cautious steps he moves back over to the little psychic. She looks down at her pussy and then back to him. With that look he's sure she want him to continue. And if that's what she wants there's no way he's going to turn her down. Before he does however, Noah takes the opportunity to do something else.

He reaches behind her unlacing the knot in her gown. Eleven is cautious of him as well never shaking the serious look on her face incase he's up to something. But once he's done he lets the strings of her gown fall and then he slides his fingers underneath the collar of it. Eleven watches the man slip her gown off of her shoulders.

The gown falls from her slender frame and lands around her waist. With her chest out in the open Noah leans in. His stomach is in knots but he doesn't let it stop him from kissing the child. Eleven doesn't stop him but her lack of knowledge with kissing leads to her enjoying it without actually kissing back.

Not going to push his luck by stay there for too long Noah kisses down the side of her neck as he lays Eleven onto her back with the upmost care. Having his kisses reach her neck tickles and her demeanor changes from then on. No longer he stoic glare but a nervous spectator.

Noah continues south and reaches her small breasts. For the first time he's able to get his mouth on them and gives her hard nipples several licks. Eleven starts moaning when he suckles on one of them while fiddling with the other using his hand. While not at good as when he used his mouth lower on her body what he was doing now felt good and made her squirm all the same.

Eleven grabs the sleeves of his shirt for something to hold onto while he moves over to her second nipple. When he was done and both were covered in a thick gloss of his spit he continues down coming back to her pussy. He'd managed to get her excited for this all over again. She sat there as quiet as a mouse eagerly anticipating him to keep going as she stared down waiting for the exact moment his tongue met with her sex.

Noah looks back up to Eleven and watches her eyes roll to the back of her head a second before she closes them. His tongue slides over her clit and down to her opening. She turns again and as if the momentary break in the action hadn't occurred Noah is back to licking Eleven's pussy and savoring her juices.

With Noah too far down for her to reach Eleven grabs at the bed yanking on the frame as she tries to withstand the stimulating onslaught. Wide awake she isn't as quiet and bites down on the side of her hand to keep her screams of pleasure low. Her panting moans however come to frequently for her not to accidentally let the occasionally one slip out.

When she begins making to much noise Eleven turns her upper half to the side and pulls her face into her pillow. It helps a little to be able to let a few of her moans into the soft cushion of it. Noah doesn't stop wanting to make sure he does what she wants. Seeing she's enjoying it he goes on by sticking his tongue into her pussy deep and hard as he always had while also fondling her erect clit.

Before long Eleven is letting out deeper moans as she nears her orgasm. With both arms wrapped around the pillow she pulls it closer and lets out a primal howl into the pillow as she cumms. Noah can feel the girl climax and slows a bit but keeps his tongue licking at her dripping slit until she starts to settle down.

After she's finished cumming Noah backs off. Eleven drops the pillow to her side while rolling onto her back. The guard is unsure what to do next and waits for Eleven to make her move first. When she's ready she sits up on the bed and looks at him. She doesn't say a word but instead reaches to grab his hand. Noah allows her to take it. With a cute face she wraps her small hand around two of his digits. With his index and middle finger in hand Eleven moves them down to her pussy and rubs her folds with them.

Noah inadvertently chuckles and smiles at her willingness to keep going. And as she'd chosen the same two fingers he'd fucked her with so many times already he started to question how long did she know. What else did she know. And if she let him do these things because she enjoyed them as much as he did. Whatever the case he accepts her proposal.

Once again he gives her a kiss, this time deeper, his tongue ripe with her nectar whipping against her tongue. However this time Eleven returns his advance. She still doesn't know how to kiss but she licks back liking the way it felt to have their tongue moving together and the taste of it. While they make out Noah slides his fingers into her pussy.

Eleven's walls squeeze around his digits and soak them in her girl-cum the moment he's inside. She starts moaning and panting into Noah's mouth while her thrusts his fingers in and out of her. Pumping his fingers deep into Eleven Noah sucks on her tongue over the moon that he's finally able to do this without worrying about he waking up. It also meant he didn't have to hold back as much. And Eleven got to truly feel how good it felt to have her pussy finger fucked by him while melting into his kiss.

Soon the young girl is thrusting her hips into his hand and pulling him wanting him to push his fingers in ever deeper. Things start to feel exceptionally better as Noah moves back to her neck. Having his tongue flicking all over the side sof her neck and collarbone makes Eleven bite back her moans. When she can't and lets out her joyous approval Noah takes her mouth with another kiss.

With his tongue either in her mouth of teasing another part of her body as well as having two of his fingers pumping into her and his thumb stroking her clit Eleven cries out as she starts to cum all over again. The next orgasm feeling worlds better then the one before and leaves the 12 year old girl panting with her head tucked against Noah's chest while she unintentionally drools over her own pussy.

Noah pulls her into a kiss while she's flooded with a torrent of sensual nirvana. Slowly she recovers and regains her strength. When she starts kissing him back he slides his finger from her pussy. The pull out of his digits makes her shiver and purr out wanting them back in but Noah is too busy pushing them into her mouth. Eleven suckles on his fingers and devours her own juices until Noah pulls his finger out again. Then the two remain close with another wild kiss that leads to Noah pinning Eleven down and hovering above her.

The time had finally come and Noah isn't going to let it go. As the young Eleven lay beneath him, Noah hastily tore at his pants. Unfastening his belt & zipper then fishing his throbbing shaft out. Her pair of big brown eyes follow him as he frees his cock from his pants and locks onto the meaty six inch log.

Noah brings his length to the tween's slit. His tip spreading her juicy folds as he playfully flicks it up and down her sex has Eleven letting out the cutes moans ever. They grow louder when Noah presses the tip to her opening and begins to push. Her face grimaced in a bit of pain as his size stretches her wide open. And slowly the guard sinks into Eleven's tight cunny.

A deeper moan is quieted by Noah kissing Eleven. The deeper he goes into her the louder she gets. She wraps her arms around the larger man's frame. Her nails digging into his shirt. A few more inches in and Eleven coils her legs around his hips. Noah moves in closer and sinks the rest of himself into the child. Bottoming out he stops with all of his dick buried in Eleven as she purrs out another orgasm from his steady penetration.

Eleven's pussy tightens around his phallus as she cumms making being inside such a tight hole even better. Noah puts his arms at Eleven's sides and scops them under the girl's light body holding her tightly as he begins to pull out. Upon sliding back in Eleven shudders and moans into his mouth again sending vibrations through their connected frames. The heat around him is unimaginable. Every inch of his dick being squeezed by Eleven's cunt, milked hard and fast.

Noah pulls his body into hers more frequently as the girl tightens her grip. His thrusts hit her tight ass with a low clap that echoes through the room. Every few times he speeds up and the clap of their sexes meeting fills the room.

Noah is in love with Eleven. Every part of the girl feeling like pure ecstasy driving him to lose himself and all sense. The bed under them begins squeaking to each thrust. When he pulls away from their kissing Eleven's moans fill the area. She didn't know what sex was but she knew this felt good. It felt so much better than when he fingered her and even better than when he used his mouth. Unable to express how amazing it felt to have her pussy wrapped around such a hard dick that was pounding against her cervix every second.

Her eyes roll again as she experiences another orgasm and Noah continues slamming his dick into her at full speed. The blank walls of her room started to spin and stars dotted her view against the waves of rapture spreading through her small body. She melts into the numbness that comes with her orgasms but she can't wait for it to pass knowing her body will be extra sensitive afterwards.

After coming down from her second orgasm around Noah's cock Eleven almost immediately start building to another. Her pussy takes Noah in and is screaming for another orgasm. Noah hammers down into her cunny as he closes in on his own orgasm. He wanted to last longer but after so many orgasms Eleven's pussy forced him to tap out much sooner than he expected. He pushes himself to go a little longer.

With his final thrusts hitting the end of Eleven's walls the two cum together. Noah exploding first and giving her everything he has. As he cums his dick pumps a huge load into her occupied pussy and fills her womb with his hot seed. The last of his hard impacts along with the sensation of her insides being bathed in cum tips her over the edge and she cums along with Noah. Her pussy squeezing around his joint again milking all of his cum into her full pussy. With her capacity filled with his cock already his load has nowhere to go but out and squirts out at every angle it can around his dick.

A heavy weight is dropped after he cums. His dick releases the last of his cum into Eleven. He could feel his seed filling and leaving her body as the girl's pussy forced it out after her womb was filled to the brim with his sperm.

Noah looks at Eleven who's too spent to open her eyes. As she exhales over and over trying to catch her breath he turns her head to face him and kisses her. Eleven is weak but kisses him back for as long as she can.

In time their orgasmic haze begins to fade and they slowly regain their strength to continue on. Noah moves first as she lifts himself up. Taking a needed breather he looks over the girl's body. Without his dick inside of her pussy the gaping hole poured the shallow half of his cum out over her ass and all over the bed. And had her pussy been able to close after such a big cock she might have been able to push out more.

His dick was still hard as Noah sat there. He looks at his watch and sees it's only 11:27. he looks back at the little girl who starting to get up. She moves over stopping inches from him and places one of her hands atop his. Taking it as her wanting him to stay and likely continue Noah silently agreed. He didn't want to stop either. Taking off his clothes and tossing any hesitation to the floor along with his clothes Noah takes Eleven's meek frame and puts her down on her hands and knees.

Her slender body visible from the back he memorized all of her. her pussy still open and dripping with his cum left him thinking of one thing. He could cum again and he had to fill her back up. Taking her by her hips he slides his dick back in and takes Eleven once more.

The bed starts screeching again as the man fucks the girl with deep and heavy thrusts. It wasn't long after that the two were cumming again and again and again. Noah had intended to leave by midnight as he always had. But this time he couldn't. Eleven was awake and wanted to have sex and he couldn't say no. Even as she collapses onto her stomach, he follows her down, kissing the nape of her sweaty neck as he continues fucking her as hard as he can.

Coming in on the eleventh hour Noah didn't leave Eleven's room until 3 AM. By then they were both fucked out and could barely move. After coming for the umpteenth time inside of Eleven, Noah finished by painting her face and covering her shaved head in his last load. When he was down he took the girl to the bathroom to clean her off. As it turned four he'd replaced the mattress and sheets and sent Eleven to bed. Before he left the two shared one last kiss that confirmed that he would be visiting her again soon the moment the clock struck 11.
